

Preferred Dress for ETC Functions of the St. Andrews Society of Baltimore

May 9, 2010

1. For Parades & ceremonies:

Uniforms:

White sweater(cold weather) consists of Blue Bonnet (Balmoral or Glengarry), white sweater over shirt of choice (preferred light in color), kilt (tartan of your choice), black leather belt, black leather(dress or animal shin sporran), white hose, Baltimore flashes (black & gold- available from quartermaster), & black (shined) shoes.

Khaki shirt(warm weather) consists of Blue Bonnet (Balmoral or Glengarry), short sleeve khaki shirt, kilt (tartan of your choice), black leather belt, black leather(dress or animal shin sporran), white hose, Baltimore flashes (available from quartermaster), & black shoes.

2. Day wear (generally worn for church services & semiformal affairs) consists of standard Scottish daywear.
3. Formal Scottish attire (Prince Charley or other formal Scottish attire) is suggested for formal affairs or a tuxedo.

For questions about daywear & formal attire see your Scottish clothing vendor or informed members in the St. Andrews Society.

Please note that this is a preferred mode of dress & should not be construed to be the only mode of dress. We are about participation & if you only have a tartan sash & bonnet you are always welcome to participate.

However, in parades & other color guard functions a dark blue bonnet, khaki shirt & or white sweater, kilt, belt, sporran, hose, flashes, & shoes are required. See 1 & 2 above.
